Words are power. Until you have a word for something, you can't think effectively about it. That's why every discipline has its own specialized vocabulary and why people who study the discipline must learn the vocabulary in order to be conversant. So, vocabulary-building is as crucial in high school, college, and career as it was when students were first learning to read and write.

Somewhere in between all of that fun stuff is vocabulary, and high school vocabulary isn't exactly exciting. If you want to pass the SAT test, you need to know what words like dubious and pitiable mean. Everyday high school will test you on the meaning of words like freewheeling and egregious. It can't be described as a ton of fun.
